

Describe this picture to your grown up. Use as many interesting adjectives as you can.

Why is the ladybird sitting on a leaf? How did it get there? Where is it going?
What does the feather feel like? Where has it come from?

Today for your English work I would like you to write a story about your ladybird. Use the work you did yesterday to help you.

Here's the start of my story. You could magpie my ideas or you could write your own.

Use the questions to help you.

Her shell was as red as a post box, and she had 7 small, circular black dots on either side. She considered herself to be the most beautiful creature in the entire garden! With a frantic flutter of her wings, she hovered for a second before landing gently.
